

1994 Person of the Year

The Person of the Year Award is in recognition of Nate's outstanding contributions to the warehouse distributors and in appreciation of his conscientious dedication as an individual member of the specialty equipment industry.

Nate Shelton, K & N Engineering

Nate has been involved in the performance industry virtually all his working life, beginning with Hooker Headers in 1972. He has served with such industry standards and Cam Dynamics, V.D.O. instruments and most recently, K & N Engineering. Nate has been with K&N since 1987 as National Sales Manager and now oversees all sales and marketing efforts as vice president. In just seven years, K & N has quadrupled gross sales.
