

1993 Person of the Year

The Person of the Year Award is in recognition of Traci's outstanding contributions to the warehouse distributors and in appreciation of her conscientious dedication as an individual member of the specialty equipment industry.

Traci Hrudka, Mr. Gasket

Traci has been apart of the Mr. Gasket team since 1982. She began her career in sales and customer service, and her dedication to customer satisfaction resulted in her recent promotion to Manager of Sales Administration. Currently, Traci is responsible for customer relations, order department management, and maintaining customer contacts. An avid racing enthusiast, Traci represents Mr. Gasket at several National Hot Rod Association events each year. She resides in North Royalton, Ohio.
