

1991 Person of the Year

The Person of the Year Award is in recognition of William's outstanding contributions to the warehouse distributors and in appreciation of his conscientious dedication as an individual member of the specialty equipment industry.

William Lloyd, Argus Publishers

Dear Friends,

Being chosen as PWA Person of the Year was definitely a highlight of my career. Not only was it an honor for me, it was an honor for all of us at Argus. We believe very strongly in PWA and its people, and will continue in our support of your worthy organization. On behalf of all of us at Team Argus, please accept my thanks for the award and I hope I can live up to it.

Most Sincerely,
William Lloyd
