

1988 Person of the Year

The Person of the Year Award is in recognition of Hector's outstanding contributions to the warehouse distributors and in appreciation of his conscientious dedication as an individual member of the specialty equipment industry.

Hector Melendez, Crane Cams

Hector Melendez, the clown-prince of the industry and one of a premier sales manager, has been a long-time supporter of the Performance Warehouse Association and most recently organized the PWA General Membership Meeting in Daytona Beach, Florida. He is also responsible for designing a program where Crane Cams will help subsidize retailer's membership dues in PWA's PAR Program.
