

COMMERCIAL CREDIT & COLLECTIONS

As part of PWA's member benefit services, PWA is pleased to offer a commercial credit and collection service agency, Coface North America. This benefit is available to members who have a need in the area of commercial credit or collection.

Coface North America is a full service credit and collections company firm headquartered in New Orleans, LA. The company employs several hundred employees and has several offices throughout the United States and even has a significant International presence.

For information on member benefits and services, please visit Coface North Americas website www.coface-usa.com or contact Monique Alexander. Monique can be reached at (800) 318-6494 ext. 212.